A Word From The Wise ...

The restrictions on numbers gathering in church services has been raised from yesterday, and while this does not change anything for us in St Ninians, it means that St Paul's can return to 'normal', or should I say a new normal. St Paul's parish have learned from their COVID experience of holding masses and are using the experience to decide what their new timetable for masses will be. Depending on the outcome, we will decide what best suits us in the new arrangements. If St Paul's changes are to be effective from next week and it means a slight adjustment of the time of our mass, I will send out an e-mail to those on the parish e-mail list and ensure that those without e-mail are informed of any change. TODAY will be the last time our Mass will be recorded as a regular feature. While it was a great blessing during the restrictions, a recorded or live streamed mass is no substitute for the faithful gathering together for worship.

Msgr Harry

THE FIRST READING

2 Kings 4:8-11

A reading from the second Book of Kings.

One day Elisha went on to Shunem, where a wealthy woman lived, who urged him to eat some food.

So whenever he passed that way, he would turn in there to eat food.

And she said to her husband, "Behold now, I perceive that this is a holy man of God, who is continually passing our way. Let us make a small roof chamber with walls, and put there for him a bed, a table, a chair, and a lamp, so that whenever he comes to us, he can go in there."

One day he came there, and he turned into the chamber and rested there. And he said to Gehazi his servant, "What is to be done for her?"

Gehazi answered, "Well, she has no son, and her husband is old." He said, "Call her." And when he had called her, she stood in the doorway. And he said, "At this season, when the time comes round, you shall embrace a son."

The Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

GRADUAL lacta cogitatum tuum (Ps 55:23,17,19)

O cast thy burden upon the Lord: and he shall nour-ish thee.

When I cried unto the Lord, he heard my voice: from the battle that was a-against me.

THE SECOND READING

Romans 6:3-4, 8-11

A reading from the Letter of St Paul to the Romans.

Brethren: All of us who have been baptised into Christ Jesus were baptised into his death.

We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life.

But if we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him.

For we know that Christ being raised from the dead will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him. The death he died he died to sin, once for all, but the life he lives he lives to God.

So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus.

The Word of the Lord.

THE HOLY GOSPEL

Matthew 10:37-42

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

R. Glory be to thee, O Lord.

At that time: Jesus said to his apostles, "He who loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; and he who loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me; and he who does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me.

He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for my sake will find it.

He who receives you receives me, and he who receives me receives him who sent me. He who receives a prophet because he is a prophet shall receive a prophet's reward, and he who receives a righteous man, because he is a righteous man, shall receive a righteous man's reward.

And whoever gives to one of these little ones even a cup of cold water, because he is a disciple, truly, I say to you, he shall not lose his reward."
