Sunday Mass: 10:30 am

TRINITY 20

Sunday 25 October, 2020

A word from the Wise.

Next Sunday is All Saint's Day, which is not celebrated by the secular world, but Halloween (All Saint's Eve) is. I wonder how many of them realise that that the ghoulies, ghosties and long-legged beasties and things that go bump in the night is a Celtic pagan celebration of the division between the light of summer and darkness of winter as well as being their new year and harvest celebrations. They believed that the veil between the material and the spiritual was thinnest on this day and so strange encounters might be had on this dark night. For Christians this festival celebrates Christ's faithful saints who were lights in the world casting out the darkness of evil. Interesting that the secular world celebrates evil but not the victory over evil!

However, All Saints Day is an important day when we should make sure we are at mass. It is also another occasion for rejoicing in our parish as during the All Saint's Day mass, THOMAS GARLICK who has been worshipping with us and undergoing Catholic formation will be received into the Catholic Church and Confirmed. Please support him with your presence and prayers on that day.

All Soul's Day is celebrated the following day so if you have submitted names to be remembered at this mass (8-00 am following mattins at 7-25 am) please attend the mass if it is at all possible. I realise the time is difficult for some of you, but those who can make it should represent our community in joining with the saints and praying for the faithful departed on this day.

INTRODUCTORY RITES

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

HYMN 523 (omit 2, 3)

My, God, how wonderful thou art,
thy majesty how bright,
how beautiful thy mercy-seat
in depths of burning light!

O how I fear thee, living God,
with deepest, tenderest fears,
and worship thee with trembling hope
and penitential tears.

Yet I may love thee too, O Lord,
almighty as thou art,
for thou hast stooped to ask of me
the love of my poor heart.

No earthly father loves like thee,
no mother, e'er so mild,
bears and forbears as thou hast done
with me, thy sinful child.

Father of Jesus, love's reward,
what rapture will it be,
prostrate before thy throne to lie
and gaze and gaze on thee!

RECESSIONAL HYMN

HYMN 508 (t. 507)

Lord of all power, I give you my will,
in joyful obedience your tasks to fulfill
Your bondage is freedom, your service is song,
and, held in your keeping, my weakness is strong.

Lord of all wisdom, I give you my mind,
rich truth that surpasses man's knowledge to find.
What eye has not seen and what ear
has not heard
Is taught by your Spirit and shines
from your word.

Lord of all bounty, I give you my heart;
I praise and adore you for all you
impart:
your love to inspire me, your counsel
to guide,
your presence to cheer me, whatever betide.

Lord of all being, I give you my all;
if e'er I disown you I stumble and fall;
but, sworn in glad service your word
to obey,
I walk in your freedom to the end of the way.

AGNUS DEI

O Lamb of God,

that takest away the sins of the world:
have mercy upon us.

O Lamb of God,

that takest away the sins of the world:
have mercy upon us.

O Lamb of God,

that takest away the sins of the world:
grant us thy peace.

All communicants: We do not presume to come to this thy Table, O merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness, but in thy manifold and great mercies. We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under thy Table. But thou art the same Lord whose property is always to have mercy. Grant us therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh of thy dear Son Jesus Christ, and to drink his blood, that our sinful bodies may be made clean by his body, and our souls washed through his most precious blood, and that we may evermore dwell in him, and he in us. Amen.

Priest: Behold the lamb of God; behold him that taketh away the sins of the world. Blessed are those who are called to the Supper of the Lamb.

All: Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldst come under my roof, but speak the word only, and my soul shall be healed.

THE FIRST READING

Exodus 22:21-27

A reading from the Book of Exodus.

Thus says the Lord: 'You shall not wrong a stranger or oppress him, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt. You shall not afflict any widow or orphan. If you do afflict them, and they cry out to me, I will surely hear their cry; and my wrath will burn, and I will kill you with the sword, and your wives shall become widows and your children fatherless.

"If you lend money to any of my people with you who is poor, you shall not be to him as a creditor, and you shall not exact interest from him. If ever you take your neighbor's garment in pledge, you shall restore it to him before the sun goes down; for that is his only covering, it is his mantle for his body; in what else shall he sleep? And if he cries to me, I will hear, for I am compassionate.”

The Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

GRADUAL

The eyes of all wait upon thee, O Lord: and thou givest them their meat in due season.

Thou openest thy hand: and fillest all things living with plenteousness.

THE SECOND READING

1 Thessalonians 1:5-10

A reading from the first Letter of St Paul to the Thessalonians.

Brethren: You know what kind of men we proved to be among you for your sake.

And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, for you received the word in much affliction, with joy inspired by the Holy Spirit; so that you became an example to all the believers in Macedonia and in Achaia.

For not only has the word of the Lord sounded forth from you in Macedonia and Achaia, but your faith in God has gone forth everywhere, so that we need not say anything.

For they themselves report concerning us what a welcome we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols, to serve a living and true God, and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, Jesus who delivers us from the wrath to come.

The Word of the Lord.

THE HOLY GOSPEL

Matthew 22:34-40

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

R. Glory be to thee, O Lord.

At that time: When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they came together.

And one of them, a lawyer, asked him a question, to test him.

“Teacher, which is the great commandment in the law?”

And he said to him,

“You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the great and first commandment. And a second is like it, You shall love your neighbour as yourself. On these two commandments depend all the law and the prophets.”

The Gospel of the Lord.
