The Order of Mass

INTRODUCTORY RITES

HYMN 190 (t. 122(ii))

O Spirit of the living God,
in all the fullness of thy grace,
wherever human foot hath trod,
descend on our rebellious race.

Give tongues of fire and hearts of
love
to preach the reconciling word;
give power and unction from above
whene'er the joyful sound is heard.

Be darkness, at thy coming, light;
confusion, order in thy path;
souls without strength inspire with
might;
bid mercy triumph over wrath.

O Spirit of the Lord, prepare the whole round earth her God to
meet;
breathe thou abroad like morning
air,
till hearts of stone begin to beat.

Baptize the nations; far and nigh
the triumphs of the cross record;
the name of Jesus glorify
till every kindred call him Lord.

RECESSIONAL HYMN

HYMN 437 (t. 362)

Go forth and tell! O Church of God,
awake!
God's saving news to all the nations
take:
proclaim Christ Jesus, Saviour, Lord
and King,
that all the world his glorious praise
may sing.

Go forth and tell! God's love
embraces all,
he will in grace respond to all who
call:
how shall they call if they have never heard
the gracious invitation of his word?

Go forth and tell! The doors are open
wide:
share God's good gifts – let no one be
denied;
live out your life as Christ your Lord
shall choose,
your ransomed powers for his sole
glory use.

Go forth and tell! O Church of God
arise!
Go in the strength which Christ your Lord supplies;
go till all nations his great name adore
and serve him, Lord and King for evermore.

Amen.

Priest: Behold the lamb of God; behold him that taketh away the sins of the world. Blessed are those who are called to the Supper of the Lamb.

THE FIRST READING

Job 7:1-4, 6-7

A reading from the Book of Job.

Job spoke, saying: "Has not man a hard service upon earth, and are not his days like the days of a hireling? Like a slave who longs for the shadow, and like a hireling who looks for his wages, so I am allotted months of emptiness, and nights of misery are apportioned to me.

"When I lie down I say, 'When shall I arise?' But the night is long, and I am full of tossing till the dawn. My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle, and come to their end without hope. Remember that my life is a breath; my eye will never again see good."

The Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

GRADUAL

Let the nations know that thou, whose Name is the Lord: art only the Most Highest over all the earth.

O my God, make them like unto the whirling dust: and as the stubble before the wind.

THE SECOND READING

1 Corinthians 9:16-19, 22-23

A reading from the first Letter of St Paul to the Corinthians.

Brethren: If I preach the Gospel, that gives me no ground for boasting.

For necessity is laid upon me. Woe to me if I do not preach the Gospel!

For if I do this of my own will, I have a reward; but if not of my own will, I am entrusted with a commission.

What then is my reward? Just this: that in my preaching I may make the Gospel free of charge, not making full use of my right in the Gospel.

For though I am free from all men, I have made myself a slave to all, that I might win the more. To the weak I became weak, that I might win the weak. I have become all things to all men, that I might by all means save some. I do it all for the sake of the Gospel, that I may share in its blessings.

The Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

THE HOLY GOSPEL

Mark 1:29-39

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark.

R. Glory be to thee, O Lord.

At that time: Leaving the synagogue, Jesus entered the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John.

Now Simon's mother-in-law lay sick with a fever, and immediately they told him of her. And he came and took her by the hand and lifted her up, and the fever left her; and she served them.

That evening, at sundown, they brought to him all who were sick or possessed with demons. And the whole city was gathered together about the door.

And he healed many who were sick with various diseases, and cast out many demons; and he would not permit the demons to speak, because they knew him.

And in the morning, a great while before day, he rose and went out to a lonely place, and there he prayed. And Simon and those who were with him followed him, and they found him and said to him, "Every one is searching for you."

And he said to them, "Let us go on to the next towns, that I may preach there also; for that is why I came out."

And he went throughout all Galilee, preaching in their synagogues and casting out demons.

The Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise be to thee, O Christ.
