Easter 2—Divine Mercy

Sunday 11 April 2021

Word from the Wise

I would like to thank all those who attended our worship during Holy Week and the Triduum. It was a very prayerful and joyous celebration. And I pray that you received many blessings from your observance of the liturgies. Thank you also for your generous financial support of the parish and our seminarian funds.

Today is Divine Mercy Sunday. This feast was first observed in 1937 as a consequence of the visitations and visions of Sr Faustina Kowalska. The focus of the celebration is on God's loving mercy "which is in reality the core of the Gospel message; it is the name of God Himself, the face with which He reveals Himself in the Old Testament and fully in Jesus Christ, the incarnation and redemptive love. This love also illuminates the face of the Church, and is manifested through the sacraments as well as in the works of charity, both in the community and individuals" Benedict XVI, Castel Gandolfo 2008

INTRODUCTORY RITES

HYMN 140

Christ is alive! Let Christians sing.
The cross stands empty to the sky.
Let streets and homes with praises ring.
Love, drowned in death, shall never die.

Christ is alive! No longer bound to distant years in Palestine,
but saving, healing, here and now,
and touching every place and time.

In every insult, rift and war,
where colour, scorn or wealth divide,
Christ suffers still, yet loves the more,
and lives, where even hope has died

Women and men, in age and youth,
can feel the Spirit, hear the call,
and find the way, the life, the truth,
revealed in Jesus, freed for all.

Christ is alive, and comes to bring good news to this and every age, till earth and sky and ocean ring
with joy, with justice, love and praise.

Ps 43. Judica me, Deus.

Priest: Give sentence with me, O God, and defend my cause against the ungodly people; O deliver me from the deceitful and wicked man.

People: For thou art the God of my strength, why hast thou put me

while the enemy oppresseth me?

Priest: O send out thy light and thy truth, that they may lead me, and bring me unto thy holy hill, and to thy dwelling.

People: And that I may go unto the altar of God, even unto the God of my joy and gladness; and upon the harp
will I give thanks unto thee, O God,
my God.

Priest: Why are thou so heavy, O my soul?
and why art thou so disquieted within give him thanks, which is the help of my countenance, and my God.

Blessed Mary ever-Virgin, to own fault, by my own most grievous fault. Wherefore I beg Blessed Mary ever-Virgin, Blessed Michael the Archangel, Blessed John the Baptist, the holy Apostles Peter and Paul, all the Angels and Saints, and thee, Father, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

HYMN 288 (t.388)

CHRIST is the heavenly food that gives to every famished soul
new life and strength, new joy and hope,
and faith to make them whole.

We all are made for God alone,
without him we are dead;
no food suffices for the soul
but Christ, the living bread.

Christ is the unity that binds,
in one the near and far;
for we who share his life divine
his living body are.

On earth and in the realms beyond
one fellowship are we;
and at his altar we are knit
in mystic unity.

RESSIONAL HYMN

HYMN 149 (pt 3 & doxology)

THAT Eastertide with joy was bright,
the sun shone out with fairer light,
when, to their longing eyes restored,
the glad apostles saw their Lord:

He bade them see his hands, his side,
where yet the glorious wounds abide;
the tokens true which made it plain
their Lord indeed was risen again:

Jesu, the King of gentleness,
do thou thyself our hearts possess,
that we may give thee all our days
the tribute of our grateful praise:

Doxology

O Lord, of all, with us abide in this our joyful Eastertide;
from every weapon death can wield
thine own redeemed for ever shield:

All praise be thine, O risen Lord,
from death to endless life restored;
Alleluia, alleluia.

All praise to God the Father be
and Holy Ghost eternally:
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia,
alleluia.

THE FIRST READING

Acts 4:32-35

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

The company of those who believed were of one heart and soul, and no one said that any of the things which he possessed was his own, but they had everything in common.

And with great power the apostles gave their testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all.

There was not a needy person among them,
for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the proceeds of what was sold and laid it at the apostles' feet;
and distribution was made to each as any had need.

The Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

ACCLAMATION

THE SECOND READING

1 John 5:1-7

A reading from the first Letter of St John.

Beloved: Every one who believes that Jesus is the Christ is a child of God, and every one who loves the parent loves the one begotten by him. By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments.

For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome. For whatever is born of God overcomes the world; and this is the victory that overcomes the world, our faith.

Who is it that overcomes the world but he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? This is he who came by water and blood, Jesus Christ, not with the water only but with the water and the blood. And the Spirit is the witness, because the Spirit is the truth.

The Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

THE HOLY GOSPEL

John 20:19-31

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John.

R. Glory be to thee, O Lord.

On the evening of that day, the first day of the week, the doors being shut where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said to them, "Peace be with you."

When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side.

Then the disciples were glad when they saw the Lord.

Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, even so I send you."

And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained."

Now Thomas, one of the twelve, called the Twin, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord."

But he said to them, "Unless I see in his hands the print of the nails, and place my finger in the mark of the nails, and place my hand in his side, I will not believe."

Eight days later, his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. The doors were shut, but Jesus came and stood among them, and said, "Peace be with you."

Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here, and see my hands; and put out your hand, and place it in my side; do not be faithless, but believing."

Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!"

Jesus said to him, "You have believed because you have seen me. Blessed are those who have not seen and yet believe."

Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book; but these are written that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing you may have life in his name.

The Gospel of the Lord.
