HELP NEEDED It would be very helpful if we could have more volunteers to transport Coralie to or from Church when she is able to come. The more offers we get, the less frequency for individuals it will be. Please let me know or Jean. Offering such transport to those unable to transport themselves to mass is an important ministry.

If you know anyone who is interested in becoming fully Catholic through the Ordinariate, please put them in touch with Msgr Harry or Nigel McBain. Evangelisation is an invitation to 'Come and See.'

Word from the Wise

- See the note on the back page regarding help with transporting Coralie to mass – 1 way trip, once per month. Please consider!
- Bill Miles' Funeral will be held in St Paul's Catholic Church on Mon 13th Sept at 10-30 am.
- PARISH LUNCH – Sept 19th. There will be no talk at this lunch but this will be an occasion when you can ask a question regarding teaching, something you don't understand, Church life, State of the Church etc. and together we can look at answers. While I will take questions without notice, it would be helpful if you e-mailed me a question or gave me a slip of paper next week with your question written on it.

INTRODUCTORY RITES

HYMN 7 (t. 14)

O splendour of God's glory bright,
who bringest forth the light from Light;
O Light, of light the fountain-spring;
O Day, our days illumining;

Come, very Sun of truth and love,
come in thy radiance from above,
and shed the Holy Spirit's ray
on all we think or do to-day.

Teach us to work with all our might;
put Satan's fierce assaults to flight;
turn all to good that seems most ill;
help us our calling to fulfil.

O joyful be the livelong day,
our thoughts as pure as morning ray,
our faith like noonday's glowing
height,
our souls undimmed by shades of
night.

All praise to God the Father be,
all praise, eternal Son, to thee,
whom with the Spirit we adore
for ever and for evermore.

RECESSIONAL HYMN

HYMN 573 (t.418 Omit v2)
Son of God, eternal Saviour,
source of life and truth and grace,
Son of Man, whose birth incarnate
hallows all our human race,
thou, our Head, who, throned in
glory,
for thine own dost ever plead,
fill us with thy love and pity;
heal our wrongs, and help our need.

Come, O Christ, and reign among us,
King of love, and Prince of peace;
hush the storm of strife and passion,
bid its cruel discords cease;
by thy patient years of toiling,
by thy silent hours of pain,
quench our fevered thirst of pleasure,
shame our selfish greed of gain.

Son of God, eternal Saviour,
source of life and truth and grace,
Son of Man, whose birth incarnate
hallows all our human race,
thou who prayedst, thou who willest,
that thy people should be one,
grant, O grant our hope's fruition:
here on earth thy will be done.

but the faith of thy Church; and grant to

Grant us therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat

THE SECOND READING

James 2:1-5

A reading from the Letter of St James.

My brethren, show no partiality as you hold the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory.

For if a man with gold rings and in fine clothing comes into your assembly, and a poor man in shabby clothing also comes in, and you pay attention to the one who wears the fine clothing and say, "Have a seat here, please," while you say to the poor man, "Stand there," or, "Sit at my feet," have you not made distinctions among yourselves, and become judges with evil thoughts?

Listen, my beloved brethren. Has not God chosen those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom which he has promised to those who love him?

THE HOLY GOSPEL

Mark 7:31-37

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark.

R. Glory be to thee, O Lord.

At that time: Jesus returned from the region of Tyre, and went through Sidon to the Sea of Galilee, through the region of the Decapolis.

And they brought to him a man who was deaf and had an impediment in his speech; and they begged him to lay his hand upon him.

And taking him aside from the multitude privately, he put his fingers into his ears, and he spat and touched his tongue; and looking up to heaven, he sighed, and said to him, "Ephphatha," that is, "Be opened."

And his ears were opened, his tongue was released, and he spoke plainly. And he charged them to tell no one; but the more he charged them, the more zealously they proclaimed it.

And they were astonished beyond measure, saying, "He has done all things well; he even makes the deaf hear and the mute speak."
